Customer Reviews

Received my book today! I always start a new book by getting a soothing beverage together and find some quiet time to dive in and explore. The book so far is very engaging and I can see it is already a favorite for me. It consists of 9 chapters each with an exercise to do, each one led by different mixed media artists such as Mary Beth Shaw, Judy Wise and Laurie Mika -many more too!- each with a bunch of photos and stepped out instructions with all kinds of tips to help you get going. Part of the introduction is by Jesse Reno and is all about "personal iconography" and symbols and I am thoroughly intrigued by this and I think will be stuck at this part of the book for awhile because I have been doing this symbol making for as long as I can remember but never put much more thought into it until reading this bit. It has given me a lot to think about and I want to put them all down in my journal in one place to examine more thoughtfully now. I am really enjoying this so far and I want to get a copy to send to my dear SIL as she is an artist but has been in a bit of a slump and I think this would be very inspiring for her. I think we could do some of the exercises together and have a lot of fun! As I get farther into the book I will come back and add to this post and give even more details! I would definitely recommend this book-I think it is designed for artists of any level to find inspiration and there are just tons of eye candy photos through out! Get this book!

7/1/14 Just had to add a note I LOVE THE SPIRAL BINDING!!!!!!!!!!!! SO thoughtful!!!!!!IMHO I think all art instruction/inspiration books like this should be bound this way! I wouldn't mind paying a little extra for the priveledge!
