Vacaciones Al Sol [Vacations In The Sun]: Lola Lago, Detective

Synopsis

Lectura graduada para jóvenes y adultos. Nivel A1. Lola Lago va a pasar unos días en Tossa de Mar, en la Costa Brava. Durante el viaje conoce a Magnus Nilsson, un sueco que ha sido víctima de una estafa inmobiliaria internacional. Lola le ofrece su ayuda para encontrar a los estafadores. La responsable de una agencia de detectives privados tendrá que hacer frente no solo a los casos que se le presentan, sino también a las dificultades de ser mujer en un mundo reservado tradicionalmente a los hombres. Todas las lecturas están disponibles en edición con y sin audio e incluyen notas sobre aspectos socioculturales, así como ejercicios de comprensión escrita. Please note: This audiobook is in Spanish.

I downloaded the audio book. There is an introduction where each character says a little about themselves. The chapters are short, about 1-3 minutes long and there are about 24 chapters. The characters use the Spanish accent (the sound for the letters c and z) and don't slow down. While the vocabulary isn't very hard if students aren't used to speakers from Spain, they will find it difficult. There's the same musical interlude between chapters with some cool piano music. On my player there were only 6 tracks, with multiple chapters. It was annoying that the breaks weren't at chapter endings for the tracks. If a teacher is thinking about using the audio book here are my warnings/cautions. The characters drink beer. There are a few, very brief, references to "adult" things that detectives investigate, such as someone's wife in a bikini with someone else at Mallorca but nothing in depth. There is also a reference to the bad guys having cocaine. The bad guy does try to drown Lola Lago. Some things common to Spain are referred to but not explained, such as newspaper names and places. You will probably have to pause and explain or preview and tell them the cultural info before the next chapter. The mystery itself is engaging for adults and probably middle school and up.

Lola Lago is the most thrilling character in our latest century of literature. You never know what kind of mischief she is going to get into!! My only critique of this novel is that Lola and Nilson don't end up together! Is it just me, or did they have that special chemistry that you rarely see in literature these days. Lola and Nilson could have been Romeo and Juliet for the new age... with a detective twist! This novel is definitely not for the kids! There are some pretty dramatic scenes with Lola (SPOILER ALERT: She almost drowns!!!) If that's deemed appropriate for children these days I don't want to live in this world!! read Lola Lago con mis estudiantes! Some of them, especially the guapo man who sat to my left in class, grasped the book immediately and became very involved. Other students (Nati) just chose not to talk about it. She was so smart, but she wouldn't talk!!

LOCAAAAAGO LOLA

I only got this because I need it for class. If you are looking to learn more about Spanish this is not the way to go. The book is dated and puts little effort into the teaching process.

The version of Lola Lago that was shipped to me was a condensed version of the story, and it was not even usable for my class. The exercises were also different than in the normal book. It was a complete waste of money.
