Customer Reviews

If you've been wanting to check out an MC series, this is the series to read! I am in love with all of the men in the Wind Dragon's MC, and was ecstatic to finally get Vinnie's book! Vinnie has always been the lone wolf of the MC, hence his road name "Wolf". He sticks by his brothers, and keeps his word. So when Talon calls in the marker that is owed, Vinnie packs up to spend a week protecting Talon's cousin Shay. He goes in expecting a spoiled little princess, but is shocked to see everything he thought Shay was, was completely wrong. Shay is in hiding, people are after her, thinking she has information that could bring people down. With her father in prison, and her cousin's MC in shambles, she is under protection by a different person almost every week, so when Vinnie shows up, she just goes on with her life. Neither of these two knew what to expect out of each other, they are complete opposites, yet are so right for one another. The first few chapters of this book, where they are trying to figure each other out, is angsty, and amazing. I loved the back and forth between them, as well as the way each of them seemed to always be shocked when the other did something they weren't expecting. The two of them run again when the threat shows up at their doorstep, and Shay is now at the Wind Dragon's club house. I loved that Vinnie took her there, knowing she'd be safe and he didn't want to let her be in the care of someone else, but I truly loved how everyone seemed to embrace her, especially the girls. They may be a group of bikers who do some illegal things, but when they bring someone into the family, they look out for them and would do anything for that person. This was proven over and over again in this book.
