I just love Kimberly Schlapman! She is such a breath of fresh air. So down to earth and just darling to boot! I bought this cookbook a couple of days ago and I am reading it cover to cover. It's the kind of book that you just want to sit down with a glass of tea and slowly read every page. I made the "New Brides Vegetable Beef Soup" pg 10 tonight for supper with a side of cornbread and my family LOVED IT! It was so delicious! Definitely a repeat in the future! Beautiful pictures throughout. It's just a lovely cookbook all around!

A beautiful cookbook from a beautiful person. Kimberly's recipes are FLAVORFUL and so delicious. I plan on attempting all of the recipes because what I have tried so far is scrumptious!! I also love that the book presents insight into Kimberly and why these recipes are special to her. This is the kind of purchase that keeps on giving long after you buy it.

The gist of this book is exactly what the subtitle says: cooking and visiting in Kimberly's southern kitchen. I ordered the print edition, and it's beautifully done; high-quality paper, exceptional food and portrait photography, heartfelt writing, attention to detail throughout. Kudos to KS, and everyone involved in the production of this gem!

Love this cookbook so much. Again, I just wish would be more careful when shipping books. Cover came all creased where they had just thrown it in the box. That's very disappointing however the content of the book is excellent.

I have enjoyed reading this cookbook. It's more than just recipes. I have only tried one recipe which was a cake. This was divine! Only thing I would do next time is cut the icing in half. It kept running over my dish which was the correct size she said to use. I have more of the recipes on my list to try.

This is a beautiful book. I love reading her stories, seeing gorgeous photographs, and finding each and every recipe, more and more appealing. I would make everything in this book. This IS Simply Southern!

I bought three of these books, one for myself, and one for each of my daughters. It provides a creative, authentic, and delicious connection to southern cuisine and traditions. It also reminds me of how important our families truly are.

This cookbook is fantastic. I have prepared 5 dishes already and we loved ever bite. I really like the variations of recipes that are provided. I can get a little adventurous and still not stray too far from the original recipe.
